Gentlemen:

On January 29th we tentatively agreed to meet, with counsel, on Thursday, February 26, 1976, for a review of the status of the current warning notice litigation with the Federal Trade Commission.

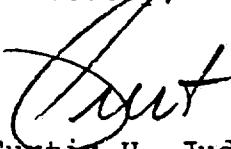

Your counsel has indicated to Arthur Stevens that the date is acceptable, and that your Company will be represented. Accordingly, I have made arrangements for us to meet at 10:00 a.m., on February 26th, at the Drake Hotel. With the expectation that we can complete our meeting by 12:30 or 1:00 p.m., I am not making any plans for lunch to be served.

I am advised that Bob Heimann will not attend, and that Cy Hetsko is presently undecided as to whether he will.

I look forward to seeing each of you on the 26th.

Kind personal regards and best wishes.

Sincerely,

Curtis H. Judge
